DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF GARLAND AND THE GREAT BEAR RIVER VALLEY

Vol. I. No. 35.

Which Ticket Will You Vote?

Both Are Strong Ones.

The Democrats Name a Garland Man and Their Ticket is Well Distributed Throughout the County. The Republican Ticket is Also Well Apportioned, but Garland was Disappointed in Failing to Secure the County Supt. of Schools. The American Party Convention is Being Held at Brigham To-day.

At the Democratic county convention held in Brigham City Monday, Oct 15th, the slate ticket was put through. There was a fairly good delegation at the convention, eighty delegates attending. Allen Roach was named temporary chairman, and Sam Holton, secretary. The following ticket was put in the field:

Representative—Wynn L. Eddy, of Brigham City.

Clerk—Fred Peterson, of Bear River City.

Recorder—Hyrum Standing, of Brigham City.

Attorney—R. H. Jones, of Brigham City.

Treasurer—Miss Olive Haws, of Elwood.

Assessor—William Lowe, of Willard.

Sheriff—Orson Loveland, of Deweyville.

Superintendent of Schools—Jesse W. Hoopes, of Brigham City.

Surveyor—David Larson, of Garland.

Commissioner (4-year term)—J. P. Christensen, of Brigham City.

Commissioner (2-year term)—Allen Roach, of Thatcher.

The Republicans of Box Elder county at their convention held in Brigham Sat. Oct 13th, nominated an exceptionally strong ticket and harmony was the program throughout, with the exception of a strenuous fight on the clerkship. H. M. Holler of Tremont and N. J. Valentine of Brigham City were the opponents in this race, the latter winning out. The convention was held at the opera house, and was well attended. E. R. Sherman of Tremont was chairman, and John Zundie of Willard, secretary.

Because of the past attitude of the paper, the Box Elder Report was read out of the Republican party. B. H. Jones, its editor, is said to be an American party man and for that reason, and the general policy of the paper, which played favorites before the convention, the delegates took a tall dislike to the sheet.

A strong plank was inserted in the platform, showing the attitude of the Republicans of Box Elder on the consolidation of the Agricultural college and the University of Utah. The plank is as follows:

"We declare ourselves opposed to the union of the Agricultural college and the University of Utah; we favor, however, a better adjustment of studies that they

Burned With Carbolic Acid

Edna, the little daughter of Mr and Mrs Will Clayton of the Clayton House, was severely burned last Sunday with carbolic acid. In one of the rooms was a stand, the bottom shelf being filled with bottles. The child went to the stand and took out the bottles and one of them was filled with carbolic acid. She poured the acid all over her little body and it burned her severely. Mrs Clayton took the child to the drug store at once and secured a preparation to soothe the pain. Dr Francke being away Dr Dunn of Tremont was summoned who soon relieved the child's sufferings. She is recovering nicely.

Section Foreman Hurt.

Sunday morning Section Foreman J. W. Hancock was quite badly bruised in a fall from the hand-car that has confined him to his bed most of this week. He and the men started out for the day's work with a number of large tools on the car. One of the tools slipped into the workings of the car and brought it to a sudden standstill. Mr. Hancock was thrown forcibly on the track and sustained some very severe bruises. At last reports he was improving.

The Greeks escaped injury.

MARKET REPORT.

Special to the Garland Globe:—

Kansas City Stock Yards, Oct. 8, 1906.

—Cattle receipts were lighter last week than they have been running, 69,000 head, including 10,000 calves. Offerings from the panhandle and New Mexico were numerous, but Colorado and other western states were lightly represented.

The market was stronger all week, salesmen securing advances of 10 to 25 cents on about everything. The supply to-day is liberal at 27,000 head, including 3,000 calves, and the cattle on exhibition at the American Royal Show are also embraced in this total. The market averages steady to day stockers and feeders stronger, cows and heifers shade easier.

Colorado killing steers are selling at $3.40 nothing here to fully test the market, cows at $2.60 to $3.30, stockers $3.00 to $3.85, New Mexico stockers $2.75 to $3.40, a string of Arizona killing steers at $3.35 and $3.25, a shipment of Nevada cows at $2.80 to $3.15, Panhandle cows $2.35 to $3.00, stockers $2.90 to $3.75, feeders $3.00 to $3.90, bulls and canners $1.75 to $2.30, killing steers $3.35 to $3.75. Prospects favor a heavy run this week, and a steady market. Cattle from Kansas and Oklahoma are short this fall, as large numbers are going directly into feed lots.

Sheep supply is heavy, 45,000 last week, 17,000 here to day, market firm all last week, steady to 10 lower to-day. A number of shipments of lambs sold at $7.00 to-day, which is top price, wethers up to $5.25, yearlings $5.00, ewes $5.00. Bulk of the run to day is Utah and other western feeders, buyers numerous, prices a little lower than they have been running, feeding lambs $5.75 to $6.35, wethers, yearlings and breeding ewes at $4.60 to $5.30. The movement from the west appears to be about a month later than usual this fall, the supply during September being short, and run so far in October above the normal for the season. Indications favor continued heavy marketing for some weeks.
